

AN INTRODUCTION TO BOTANICAL INK MAKING

SATURDAY 28 MARCH
ST DOGMAELS ABBEY
11am - 4pm
£65 inc. all materials

FERAL Ink.

A gentle workshop exploring the ALCHEMY OF MAKING COLOUR + INK from natural materials from the hedgerow, street and kitchen waste. Expect simple mindfulness activities, the opportunity to relax and make a mess and some tasty snacks. We will use the ink to write and make delicious INK TEST artworks and leave with the skills to carry on at home.

- Explore your neighbourhood for ink making materials and inspiration.
- Fun and focused exercises to start you writing and drawing.
- Heading home with COLOUR FROM THE COMPOST zine + bottle of ink.

Facilitated by writer + ink maker

Please bring with you:

- An apron or ink stain friendly clothing.
- A notebook and pen.
- Outdoor footwear + clothing for walking.
- A packed lunch. (Food also available at cafe).
- * Please do get in touch if any concerns about mobility.
